

Dinner 1

Almond Chicken & Broccoli Saute; Vegetable Spring Rolls

Vegetable Spring Rolls (1a)

In Vietnam, spring rolls, sometimes called summer rolls, are a delicacy referring to the freshness of the spring season with all the fresh ingredients.

Hoisin peanut sauce, soybean sauce, and fish sauce are all common sauces when eating spring rolls. A typical hoisin dipping sauce includes grated ginger, hoisin sauce, peanut butter and sugar. In Poland, they are known as Sajgonki, named after Saigon, the city from which many of the Vietnamese immigrants in Poland originated.

Almond Chicken & Broccoli Sauté (1b)

Active Time: 10 min.

Total Time: 15 min.

- |   |                             |
|---|-----------------------------|
| • 6 chicken breasts, boneless, skinless | salt                        |
| • black pepper                          | olive oil                   |
| • 1 ½ lb. broccoli florets              | red pepper flakes, to taste |
| • 6 tbsp. toasted almonds               | 1 ½ tsp. dark sesame oil    |

Put a 2 quart pot of salted water on to boil.

While the water is heating, place the chicken breasts in a bowl and sprinkle with salt and pepper. Heat a grill pan, or prepare a grill, for high, direct heat.

Rub some olive oil all over the chicken breasts.

Grill the breasts for a few minutes on each side to get some nice char marks, then lower the temperature to low and leave on the grill until the breasts are just almost cooked through. They'll cook a little longer in the sauté pan, so they can still be a little pink in the middle at this point.

Remove from pan or grill, set aside for a minute, then thinly slice.

Once the chicken has cooked and the water is boiling, add the broccoli florets to the salted boiling water. Allow the water to come back to a boil, and then, let cook for about 1 minute. Drain.

Heat a little olive oil in a large sauté pan on high heat. Add the red pepper flakes. Once the flakes are sizzling, add the broccoli florets, sliced grilled chicken, and toasted almonds.

Drizzle in some dark sesame oil, sprinkle with salt and pepper to taste.

Toss and cook until all of the chicken pieces are no longer at all pink in the center, a minute or two.

Serve immediately.

Dinner 2

Savory French Toast with Poached Eggs and Greens

Savory Parmesan French Toast with Poached Eggs and Greens (2a)

This recipe takes the voluptuous custard “feel” of French toast to the savory side.

Active Time: 15 min.

Total Time: 1 hr.

- |   |  |
|---|--|
| <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• 12 (1-inch-thick) slices baguette</li> <li>• 12 eggs</li> <li>• 3 tbsp. butter, softened</li> <li>• 3 tbsp. olive oil</li> <li>• 6 tsp. red-wine vinegar (plus)</li> </ul> | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>2 cup lowfat milk</li> <li>3/4 cup parmesan cheese, grated</li> <li>6 oz. baby greens</li> <li>salt &amp; black pepper</li> </ul> |
|---|--|

Preheat oven to 400°F with rack in middle.

Butter a 2-qt shallow baking dish or a 9 x 13 pan. Arrange bread in 1 layer in dish.

Whisk together the milk, 1/2 of the eggs, and salt & black pepper, to taste. Pour over the bread. Sprinkle with parmesan cheese and press lightly to help bread absorb custard. Let stand until absorbed, 15 to 30 minutes.

Dot the bread with the butter and bake, uncovered, until puffed and golden, 20 to 25 minutes.

Bring 2 inches water to a boil with a few drops of vinegar in a small deep skillet or saucepan. Break each remaining egg into a cup and slide into water, spacing eggs apart. Poach at a bare simmer to desired doneness (we prefer firm whites with runny yolks, 2 to 3 minutes).

Meanwhile, toss the baby greens with remaining vinegar, olive oil, and a little salt.

Divide French toast between plates and top with salad. Lift the eggs out of poaching liquid, one at a time with a slotted spoon and place on top of salad. Lightly season eggs with salt & black pepper.
